November 2026 Newsletter

"Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God" (Ephesians 5:1-2).

Those of us who are worshipping in the Contemporary Service have been studying the Letter to the Ephesians, and this past week, part of the instruction we received from this New Testament primer on Christian life was to "be imitators of God." This counsel is compatible with our congregation's theme for the year, "follow me." Both imperatives are invitations to explore deeper habits of Christian virtue by looking for ways that we can reflect the character of God in our own attitudes and actions. To be a Christian is to be on a pilgrimage toward greater and greater faithfulness, by modeling our own lives after the ways God has been with us.

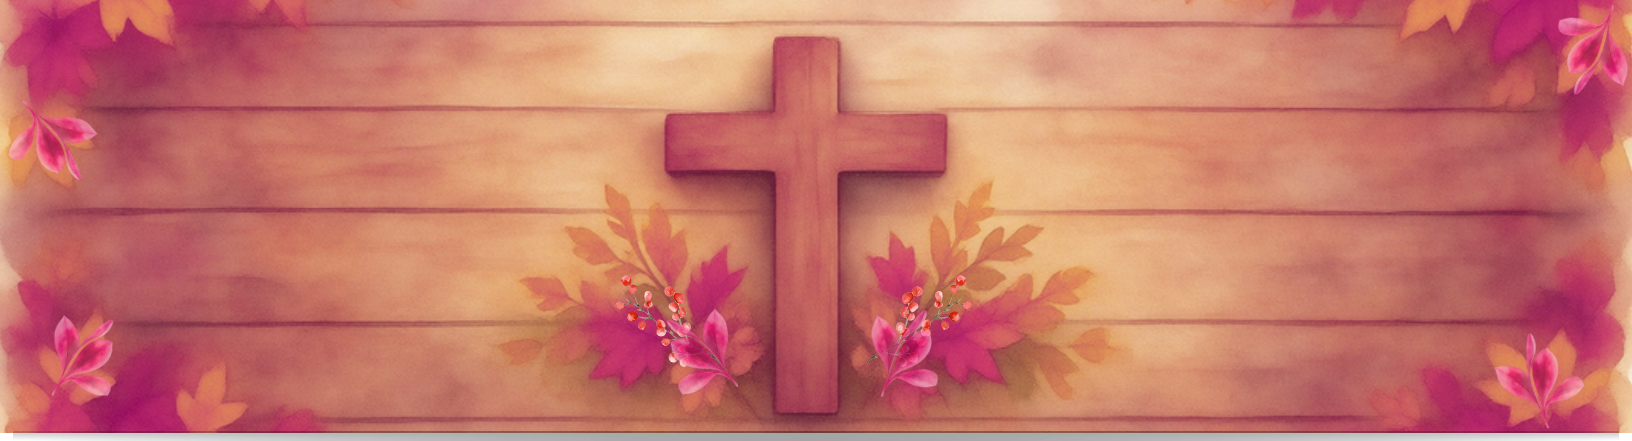

A big part of this imitation of Christ is to "walk in love." But what does it mean to walk in love? I think that it means to look for daily ways we can practice love or extend love to others, especially other people who need a little grace in their lives. Our pattern for this kind of love is, of course, Jesus Christ, who "loved us and gave himself up for us." Living love after the pattern of Christ means looking for ways to be there for others, to help them, to lift them up, even if it requires some sacrifice on our part. For when we give to others, we give back to God. We follow in the footsteps of Jesus, who "gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God."

We are currently in a season of stewardship at Central. Each year, as we approach the end of the calendar, our leaders take stock of our ministries and aspirations for next year and ask what it will take for us to be the kind of church we want to be, in Chambersburg and beyond. The answer to that call spurs our annual stewardship season, in which we challenge one another to find new ways to serve the church—with our time, talents, and yes, money.

If you've been in church the last couple of weeks, you've heard Pat McNamee or me ask you to prayerfully consider nominating yourself or someone else to fill leadership roles in our church. Whether it's a spot on the Session, Trustees, or Deacons, these are vital roles in our church. Our ministries, physical plant, and care for one another depend on people with hearts for God serving on these boards. I hope that you will prayerfully consider whether you can step up and follow Christ by volunteering as an elder, trustee, or deacon.

Also, this month, we are encouraging you to think about your financial commitment to the church. All the good we do in the Lord's name—proclaiming the good news, sharing fellowship and compassion, serving food, providing education, and distributing basic resources—requires an ambitious budget that, in turn, needs your commitment. Submitting a pledge helps us know what we can expect in terms of offerings and donations in the year to come, which then allows us to calibrate our hopes and plans to the resources we have at our disposal. I pray that you will give serious thought to what you can pledge to the church budget for 2027. The future of our ministries literally depends on it.

This is an exciting moment at Central Presbyterian Church. We are declaring ourselves "all in" on the project of following Jesus in our moment. We are doubling down on our promise to share the heart of Christ from the heart of the city. I hope you will make a commitment to join us in this holy work, with your time, talents, and resources. I certainly feel blessed to be a part of it all!

Christianity and the Founding of the United States

Did the Founders intend for the United States to be a Christian nation? Where did the idea of "separation of church and state" come from, and does it mean that the US should be a country in which religion plays no public role? In this adult education class, we will look at the different views of "church and state" held by Founders of the US and try to determine their "original intent." We'll also learn about an old Presbyterian, John Witherspoon, and his contributions to those early debates. We'll examine the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, particularly the First Amendment, asking what the history of these texts reveal about the Founders' intentions, and we'll spend some time discussing how the Supreme Court has interpreted the First Amendment on matters of religion. Finally, we'll ask whether the movement called Christian Nationalism reflects the original vision of the Founders.

Four Sessions: Thursdays 10/29, 11/5, 11/12, 11/19; 7:00-8:15pm in the Parlor.

As we enter the month known for Thankfulness, I encourage us to start our every day making lists of people and things you are grateful for. It shouldn't be taxing at all! Just look around and start naming things that you see. When you run out of ideas, don't stress yourself to think of more - just lift the rest up to God's omniscient character. This practice helps me to regulate my racing thoughts early in the morning and it has been so helpful. There will always be days that are filled with running to-do lists, burdens and obstacles, concerns and anxieties; and yet, each day is also filled with a million miracles that God has entrusted to us. May we be good stewards of them. And may we give the glory back to the One who provides so faithfully. Amen.

It has been such a joy to worship with you, Church family! I think back to World Communion Sunday and remember celebrating God's faithfulness through 11 different languages (13 if you count dance and music as languages!)! Did you know that in the worship dance from that service, each language that was sung was also honored with dance moves from that particular culture: Indonesian, Russian, Latinx, Chinese, Zulu, and more! What a gift it is to worship the God of many different cultures!

As always, we praise God for our worship teams who make each week so wonderful and honoring to the Spirit!

Our "One Church" Communion Service will be November 1st and we will be celebrating All Saints Day with the dance team from NETwork Ministries. Don't forget to turn forward your clocks on Halloween night! We are all thankful for an extra hour of sleep!

Handbell choir rehearsals begin on November 1st and Advent will begin on November 29th. If you would like to get involved in any way, please let Erin know (erinatcpc@gmail.com).

May God's name be praised in our words, actions, and thoughts!

Diaper Depot was honored to host 144 families including 9 new ones on Saturday, October 10! Our diaper ministry was enhanced this month by the following blessings:

- SCAAP once again donated an abundant supply of apples for every family to take home.
- Hillside Poultry of Chambersburg donated eggs for our families.
- Baby wipes and baby formula were also offered to all of our families in addition to their diapers.
- English and Spanish language Bibles were available for clients to take home.
- Keystone Health and AmeriHealth both provided health and educational resources.
- A delicious breakfast of pancakes and sausage was served to all!

So many amazing and wonderful volunteers blessed our ministry this month. High school students and JROTC students from CASHS continue to come out in full force as well as our volunteers from CPC and the community!

Thank you for being part of the Diaper Depot family!

It seems each month I comment about how fast the time goes!!! This month is no exception. I do strongly feel that we all need to pause and celebrate THANKSGIVING DAY. As the world rushes on, one holiday blends into the next in stores and the secular world and somehow I feel Thanksgiving can get pushed aside.

There have been several things in my life recently that have made me stop and think –then thank GOD for how HE has worked in my life and continues to do so. From some car issues to a dishwasher that threw my circuit breaker twice (THANK GOD IT DID!!!) I feel GOD has protected and guided me.

I also thank God for His working in our church. I am very thankful that HE has brought James and Elizabeth together with Central Presbyterian Church. I am anxious to see what the future holds here at Central.

Right after Thanksgiving, less than a week, the only ADVENT NOONTIME MUSICAL MEDITATION is being held!!!! That is Wednesday, December 2, 2026 at 12 noon. So please be sure that date is on your calendars now. I am working on the program for it. There will be some new organ music and some old favorites as well. Please come and bring a friend or neighbor for half an hour of music of the season.

Happy Thanksgiving!

To GOD BE THE GLORY!!

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

An Unlikely Advent is the Wednesday Morning Women's Bible study (WMWBSTUDY) for this Christmas season!
We will start 11/18- 12/16, skipping 11/25, 10:00, Wednesdays in the church parlor.
If you would like to join in, please text or email Laurie, 256-714-4950, lauriemckelvie@comcast.net for a book!

"Expect the unexpected this Christmas. This four-week Advent study focuses on the experiences of four sets of often overlooked characters in the Nativity story. During this Advent season, Rachel Billups guides readers through the themes of hope, love, joy, and peace by sharing the stories of Elizabeth and Zechariah, Herod, the Magi, and the shepherds. Each set of unexpected characters has something to teach about living faithfully on the journey to Christmas. Additional components to use the book as a four-week small group study include a leader guide and DVD/Video Sessions featuring Rachel Billups."

NOVEMBER PRAYER FOCUS & VERSE OF THE MONTH:

"Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise;
give thanks to Him and praise His name.
For the LORD is good and His love endures forever;
His faithfulness continues through all generations."
~ Psalm 100:4-5

Here we are in November, the month we traditionally turn our thoughts to Thanksgiving. We take more time to look for the God-sightings in our lives each day; i.e. – where we see God in creation; where we've seen God's protection and healing; when we've experienced God speaking to us through His word, His creation, His followers, & in quiet moments alone with Him…..then take time to thank Him for each one.

We are memorizing verses 4 and 5 of Psalm 100 this month; but take a little time to savor the truths in the whole Psalm. Pay attention to the ACTION words we find there:

Verse 1 = SHOUT for joy to the LORD all the earth.
Verse 2 = SERVE the LORD with gladness; COME before Him with joyful songs.
Verse 3 = KNOW that the LORD is God. It is He who made us, and we are His. We are His people, the sheep of His pasture.
Verse 4 = ENTER His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise; GIVE THANKS to Him and PRAISE His name.
Verse 5 = For the LORD is good and His love endures forever; His faithfulness continues through all generations.

This November, let's practice an ACTIVE prayer life! Let's LOOK for the God-sightings. Let's READ Psalm 100. Let's…….

SHOUT! = share the good news of Jesus, your God-sightings, your joy
SERVE! = ideas: be a greeter or a lay usher or help with Christmas decorating (call Brooklyn about these); volunteer at Diaper Depot or come help pack the diapers on the Wednesday before; visit folks who can no longer come to church and really miss being here (contact Laurie McKelvie)
COME! = take time to "come away" and spend time alone with God each day
KNOW! = savor the truth in verse 3. Read, re-read and meditate on the truth of who you are in God. You are made by Him and you are His!
ENTER! = "come together" with thankfulness and praise to Worship and Sunday School GIVE THANKS! = why? Read verse 5 and take time to remember all He has done
PRAISE! = sing a hymn or praise song (or read one); make a list of ALL His blessings each day

Let's watch and see how an ACTIVE prayer life can change our attitudes to ones of gratitude, not only in the month of November; but throughout each day of the year.

THE WONDER OF CHRISTMAS

JOIN US AS WE REMIND OUR CHILDREN OF THE WONDERS OF THE SEASON AND THAT IN THIS PLACE, THEY ARE SURROUNDED BY A CHURCH COMMUNITY THAT LOVES THEM.

Close your eyes for a minute and IMAGINE this scene. Downstairs in God's Backyard there are materials to create a winter village, complete with mini trees, Christmas houses, and a Christmas train. The backdrop behind us shows the snow falling on forest animals while soft instrumental music plays in the background and snowflakes hang and twirl from the ceiling. There's a cozy place for reading your favorite Christmas and winter books as you pass the story tree in the upstairs learning environment. The scents of cinnamon and pine are in the air as you create heartfelt gifts at the Maker Space. Later, you wander down the hall and spy a door decorated with the colors and symbols of Christmas that you stop to look at as you make your way to the gym. The gym has been transformed into a gingerbread obstacle course that echoes the book "Run, run, as fast as you can...you can't catch me, I'm the Gingerbread Man." Sliding through colored tunnels, hopping down the gumdrop lane...be as fast as you can! This is Christmas in MOTION. You return to the third floor and go to the art room to CREATE Christmas with clay ornaments that you can use to decorate your tree. We join our friends in making a collaborative Christmas painting and explore metallic colors in our mark-making projects this month. Each day as we explore the church, we will find the SHEPHERD ON THE SEARCH – whose main goal is to find the BABY JESUS! We will search for him as we participate in a three-week journey through the church, ending in the parlor, as we find the manger and proclaim Jesus' Birthday! Open your eyes...can you picture the scene we are creating for the PlaySchool Central children this year? YOU can play an important part in our Doorway to Adventure Program! Read and sign up to adopt a door this Holiday Season. Doors should be decorated by December 1st. Keep decorations attached securely to the door. Leave handles, exits and hallways clear! Aim for inviting, interactive, and easy designs that children ages 2—5 can enjoy. This adventure welcomes the wider church community into the Children's Christmas season. Every decorated doorway communicates, "You BELONG HERE." Read all about it on the next page! Combine creative play spaces, our Doorways to Adventure, and everything mentioned above, and you have the perfect recipe to Experience the Wonder of Christmas with us this year. We know it's only November, but these plans have to be ready in advance and the holidays are right around the corner! Thank you for supporting this ministry for 48 wonderful years.

UPCOMING DATES AND EVENTS

YOUTH SUNDAY SCHOOL: 11/1, 11/8, 11/15, 11/22, 11/29 (10:00-11:00)

CENTRAL CREATIVE ARTS: 11/12 (6:00-7:30)

On cool Fall days, I love to seek out some comfortable clothes and food. For example, on one of the rainy days we had this past month, I was snuggled on my couch with a cup of hot tea watching one of my favorite mystery shows and fully enjoying being comfortable. I remember thinking that being wrapped in a blanket is like receiving a big hug. That "hug" is not only comfortable but comforting.

On the third floor, we are learning that God has the power to comfort. This month the children continued a journey with the prophet Elijah. At this point Elijah is alone and running from King Ahab who wants to kill him. Elijah calls out to God saying being your prophet is too hard and I don't want to do it anymore. God comforts Elijah by sending an angel to prepare him for the long journey to Mount Sinai. It is here that God says I will pass by. There is a windstorm, an earthquake, and a fire, but God is not in any of those powerful elements. Instead, God is in the silence comforting Elijah with a gentle whisper.

I particularly love this moment in the Bible. Difficult situations will arise. There is no stopping that, but God has the power to comfort. I hope you can take some time to sit in the silence and listen for God's gentle whisper of comfort.

Finance Report

As we look ahead to 2027, we invite you to prayerfully consider how you can support the mission and ministries of Central through your time, talents, and financial gifts. We hope you will join us on Sunday, November 15, for Dedication Sunday, as we come together in faith and gratitude to dedicate our pledges for the coming year. Your generosity helps us continue sharing God's love, serving our neighbors, and making a meaningful difference in our community.

A Slice of Inspiration: District Manager Adrienne Intrieri!

Adrienne Intrieri has been with MOD Pizza for more than three years, beginning her MOD journey as the General Manager of the Hanover location. She later transferred to West Manchester, where she served as General Manager for over a year before being promoted to District Manager, now overseeing 11 MOD Pizza locations.

Adrienne has more than 15 years of experience in the restaurant and food service industry and has worked in nearly every type of environment, including a food truck. Throughout her career, she has developed a passion for building strong teams, developing leaders, creating great guest experiences, and using food to bring people together.

What she admires most about MOD is its people-first, community-focused culture. She believes a restaurant can be more than just a place to grab a meal—it can be a place where people feel welcomed, supported, and connected to their community. She is excited for the opportunity to share more about MOD, her experience with the company, and the impact MOD strives to make both inside its restaurants and in the communities it serves.

RSVP Info & Volunteer Opportunity!

Please RSVP to Brooklyn in the church office at brooklynshearer@centralonthesquare.org or by calling into the church office at (717) 264-4113. CPC News

The deacons are collecting donations for Central's annual Thanksgiving Food Basket Ministry. Your generous donations will support families in need throughout our community. Last year, our ministry reached over 126 families (583 adults and children), across 8 different community agencies. Labeled envelopes will be located in the pew card holders. Please place envelopes and donations in the offering baskets. The congregations' ongoing support for this ministry is greatly appreciated!

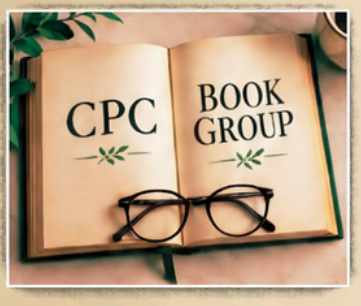

Are you willing to join Central's meal train?

When a member of our church family needs a little assistance because they are recovering from surgery, they had a baby, they are grieving, members of our church family step up to provide meals.

When there is a need, all participants receive an email, you simply check your calendar and only sign up to take a meal if it suits your schedule. The email will include details on the number of people, food likes and dislikes, delivery time, etc.

It is best to deliver meals in disposable containers so the recipient does not have to bother with returning dishes. Meals do NOT need to be homemade, you could simply run to the Butcher Shoppe or deliver a meal from a local restaurant.

If you are willing to occasionally provide a meal, please send an email to Cindy Happel at happecin@gmail.com so you can be added as a participant.

Did you know that Central has a book group that meets the second Thursday of almost every month from September until May? The group takes a break in the summer months.

The book group is casual, friendly, and open to members and non-members alike. We meet at 2 p.m. in either the Parlor or Semper Fi Classroom located across from the Pastor's Office.

Below are the meeting dates and the books we will be discussing, join us for one or all of the discussions, we love to talk about books.

November 12 - Mr. Dickens and his Carol by Samantha Silva, a 'Christmas' book
